ABSTRACT.

States that he has appealed to the Chief Court against the decision of the Sandur Droog Court. The decision of Mr Asst Court Abdul Khader in Petrs case was reversed by the Court at the interference of Vurdiengar the Revenue Shenistadar of the Dr Office, who received a bribery of Rs 40. The salient points in the said Asstt Court's decision were not brought to the notice of the Dr Court. If the Dr Court's decision and that of the Asstt Court be compared the foul interference of Vurdiengar will at once be manifest. When the Kolar Dr Court ordered that Petr should pay penalty w[illegible]

deed of partition, Petr pleaded his case hard and in the end got a decree in his favor passed by the Asst Court.
Vardiengar has in the persons of Seenivasachar Ayoorroomoorthia in the Chief Court's office, friends who would arrange matters in such a way as to get the Court's order confirmed —
As Petr is a poor man,
and help that just orders
may be passed in his case —

Sir

I have the honor to state that Nanavarti Dasappah and Shamanna, holders of the Shanbogue Inams in the villages of Gundalagurike, Rangadhamanakere and Gonoor, Chikaballapur Taluk, have petitioned to this Office, requesting that the Inams in question might be settled under the Chief Commissioner's Proceedings No. 7037/276 dated 17th October 1876, as they were alienated to them, prior to the date of the issue of Sir Mark Cubbon's Notification of 1835. This circumstance not having been brought to the notice of Mr. Assistant Narasimiengar at the

in the case, to enable me to dispose of the Inams under the Chief Commissioner's ruling above quoted.

ABSTRACT.

States that Gundappa & certain others preferred a Revt suit against one Shamanna for certain lands included in the Petitioners Service Inam; that the Sub Division officer of Chikballapura decreed the Lands to Shamanna; that the said Gundappa & others appealed to the Division Court; that the Comr found that the Lands had been confirmed as Service Inam by the Inam Deptt and ordered that the Lands should be allowed to the said Gundappa & others as their Service Inam;

that

that the said Shamanna preferred a Special Appeal before the Chief Comr, who, the Petr hears, cancelled the Comrs order, & confirmed that of the Sub Division Officer; that the Petitioner now brings to notice that if the said Shamanna had any right to the service Inam, he should have got it settled in his favor during the Inam Settlement, and quit rent duly imposed; that the Petitioner brought this matter to the notice of the Dy Comr & Comr, who decline to interfere with the Chief Comrs order above mentioned and that a quit rent should be made payable on the Inam from the year 1872 when the Inam Settlement took place.—

Prays that orders may issue to levy quit rent at least from the current year.—

ABSTRACT.

States that when he applied to the Chikballapur Sub Dr Asst Comr for the execution of Chief Comrs Special Appeal Order No 61 of 1876-77, asking at the same time, for his Special Appeal Court Costs, the Asst Comr told him that the said costs were not referred to in the Order; and he therefore could not be ordered to be paid to Petr.

Therefore Petr prays that on a reference to the Records of the case, orders may be issued to the Asst Comr for recovery of Petrs Special Appeal Court Costs amounting to Rs 10..9..0 as shown in the margin.
